CIRCLE CITY DERBY GIRLS

SPONSORSHIP INFORMATION

OUR HISTORY

The Circle City Derby Girls are an all-female flat-track roller derby league based in Indianapolis. The league was founded in 2008 by a handful of dedicated skaters who began practicing at a former ice rink in Irvington. It has since grown to a league of more than 60 active skaters and dedicated volunteers.

In the spring of 2009, we began traveling across the midwest to compete with other roller derby teams under the name "Circle City Socialites." As our fan base blossomed at home, we soon outgrew our home venue at Ellenberger Park. For our second season, we moved to a larger venue—The Forum at Fishers. The Forum has a capacity of 1,000, and we've had as many as 800 fans attend our home bouts.

In 2010, due to our rapid growth and addition of a second team, our league became known as the Circle City Derby Girls. Our A-team continues to play as the Circle City Socialites, and has been joined by a B-team, the Party Crashers.

OUR MISSION

The Circle City Derby Girls provide opportunities for women to develop their strength, courage and spirit by playing the challenging sport of roller derby. We also promote the sport we love through league fundraising and charity events, while offering unique, dynamic entertainment for our growing fan base.

Since our founding, we have donated thousands of dollars to local charities, including the National Kidney Foundation of Indiana, Second Starts, Teachers' Treasures and others. We regularly participate in local efforts to raise money for worthy causes and connect with our community by joining such events as the Special Olympics Indiana's Polar Plunge and FedEx Plane Pull Challenge, the Indy Pride Parade and the Historic Irvington Halloween Festival.

OUR FANS

Sponsoring the Circle City Derby Girls is a great way to reach a dedicated, active audience through our bouts, community activities and online forums. When you partner with us, you'll reach sports enthusiasts as well as a new crowd: those who don't regularly attend athletic events, but have fallen in love with roller derby. Hundreds of fans pack our home bouts and more than 2,500 users follow our Facebook and Twitter accounts. Our league regularly appears in local media, including such outlets as the Indianapolis Star, NUVO and WXIN (FOX 59).

By contributing to our league — financially or with goods and services — you'll get exposure to our legion of fans, as well as the pride that comes from contributing to a good cause. It'll help us host engaging events for our community and keep the league running by providing valuable resources like practice time, medical supplies and travel expenses.

We have a variety of sponsorship packages to fit your needs or can build a custom package for your business. Just ask us!
